Moti Jungreis and Tina Capobianco appointed to ISAND Board of Directors

TORONTO, ON (June 21, 2018) — Integrated Services for Autism and Neurodevelopmental Disorders (ISAND) is pleased to announce the appointments of Moti Jungreis and Tina Capobianco to its Board of Directors.

“We are excited to welcome Moti and Tina to our Board of Directors,” notes Mike Moran, ISAND Board Chair. “Their depth of expertise, experience, and commitment to ISAND’s leading work will assist us tremendously as we continue to grow and plan for the future.”

Moti is the Vice Chair and Head of Global Markets, TD Securities and an Executive Vice President of TD Bank Group. As Vice Chair of Global Markets, Moti oversees the sales, trading and origination for all of TD Securities globally. As a member of the TD Securities Supervisory Committee, Moti plays a key role on the firm's senior leadership team. Since joining TD Securities in 1996, Moti he has held several positions in trading and sales capacities. Previously, he served as a Lieutenant in the Israel Defense Forces. Moti holds an MBA from the Joseph L. Rotman School of Management as well as a BA in Economics and Political Science from the University of Toronto. He is a member of the Canadian Foreign Exchange Committee as well as a Board Member for the Mount Sinai Hospital Foundation. For the past several years Moti has supported ISAND with his inspiring level of generosity.

“I am honoured to be joining ISAND’s Board of Directors and am looking forward to supporting the organization’s important mission and continued growth,” says Moti. “ISAND is a leading organization providing innovative and integrated services and programs to the autism community.”

Tina is a Vice President with JD Factors Corporation where she manages the operations, underwriting and business development for the Canadian entity with assets in excess of $350 million. Tina holds a BA (Honours) from the University of Toronto and is Certified Account Executive in Factoring (CAEF). She was the co-founder of the International Factoring Association (IFA) Canadian Chapter and served a two-year term on the IFA US Board of Directors, representing Canada. Tina and her husband Claudio have been clients of ISAND for the past few years with their son Anthony. Both Tina and Claudio have been active fundraisers for ISAND, championing events such as the iCapital Give a Latte campaign and the iCapital Cook-off for Autism.

“As the parent of a young adult with autism, I have seen first-hand the impact of ISAND’s outstanding work,” says Tina. “In my role as a Board member I want to do everything possible to ensure that a growing number of families also have the opportunity to benefit from ISAND’s expert services and programs.”

ISAND Executive Director David Gray adds, “Both Moti and Tina bring unique insights and experience to our Board of Directors. ISAND will be strengthened by their understanding of the challenges and opportunities faced by non-profit organizations.”

About ISAND

ISAND is a registered non-profit organization that serves children, youth and young adults with autism and other neurodevelopmental disorders. ISAND's integrated team of developmental pediatricians, psychologists, clinicians, and therapists work together with families to achieve the best possible outcomes for young people with autism and neurodevelopmental disorders. The team provides developmental medical care, language and social communication, occupational and behavioural therapies, as well as mental health and wellness supports for individuals and families. In addition to providing a wide range of comprehensive, innovative, and evidence-informed supports and services, ISAND is becoming increasingly known as a teaching centre by providing mentorship across all levels of pediatric medical training speech-language pathology and behaviour intervention. ISAND is a member of Imagine Canada, Volunteer Canada and The Canadian Autism Spectrum Disorders Alliance (CASDA). For more information about the important work of ISAND, please visit www.isand.ca.
